Guidelines for Manuscript Submissions

The Journal of the Alliance of Black School Educators (JABSE) publishes conceptual and empirical manuscripts that contribute new knowledge and ideas in the quest for excellence in educating marginalized students.

Anonymous referees will review each manuscript submitted to JABSE unless they are inappropriate due to length, style, or topic. Manuscripts that do not meet submission requirements will not be reviewed. Articles are judged on the following:

- Significance to the field of education
- Significance of conclusions and implications for future research, practice, or policy
- Comprehensiveness of the literature review
- Adequacy of the rationale and appropriateness of the design and analysis
- Quality of writing, clarity, and format

The editor reserves the right to make changes in all manuscripts to improve clarity, conform to style, and correct grammar. Manuscripts that exceed space limitations will not be considered. Under no circumstances will a manuscript be considered if the author does not fulfill all submission requirements by the issue deadline.

MANUSCRIPT ACCEPTANCE POLICY

Notification of manuscript disposition may take several months. A publication release agreement form (or copyright waiver) is sent to the author(s) with notification of acceptance for publication. Accepted manuscripts will not be published until the editors receive the waiver from the author(s) with an original signature(s).
